Understanding Shevat 5785: A Time of Transition, Battle & Blessing

Shevat is the 11th month of the Hebrew calendar, linked to the tribe of Asher, which represents abundance, joy, and divine provision. However, this month is not just about receiving blessings—it is about warring for possession and standing in righteousness.

Key Themes of Shevat

- Righteousness as the Foundation (Tzadik - צדק) – The Hebrew letter Tzadik symbolizes "the righteous one." Shevat is a month to root ourselves in righteousness so we can stand firm and bear fruit. (Psalms 1:3)
- Dispossessing & Possessing the Land – After Moses died in Shevat, the Israelites had to dispossess the land before they could possess it. This means we must tear down demonic strongholds and establish God's Kingdom wherever we go. (Numbers 33:53)
- Awakening to the Water of Life (Aquarius - The Water Bearer) – Shevat is a time of spiritual refreshing. As the river of God touches our roots, we awaken to new life and strength. (Jeremiah 17:7-8)
- Hearing & Aligning with Divine Instruction – Before Israel could enter the land, Moses gave them wisdom for how to live as a set-apart people. Shevat is a month to listen carefully and align with God's strategies. (Deuteronomy 6:4-5)
- From Wilderness to Promise – Many feel like they are "in the middle," but Shevat is a turning point. Just as Israel prepared to cross the Jordan, we must be ready for transition and breakthrough. (Isaiah 40:31)
- 5785: Battling for the High Places – We are in the year 5785, a Hei Pey year, which means God's breath is propelling us forward, and we must declare with authority. The enemy will not give up territory easily, but we are anointed to battle and reclaim dominion! (Deuteronomy 11:24)
